SAFETY GUIDELINES REMINDER

Dear brothers and sisters at Nashville Road church of Christ,

We will resume in-person worship services on Sunday, January 24th in the building, as long as we continue to follow health and safety guidelines and practices recommended by health officials. Please see the website detailing guidelines issued by the Tennessee Governor's office for Faith Based and Community Initiatives.

- The elders would like to stress that anyone who feels that their age or health puts them in the "at risk" category, they will not be expected to attend in person. We would all prefer to enjoy fellowship as we did before the virus with hugs and handshakes but for the well being of our most vulnerable members, we must practice social distancing. In other words, when we meet, we need to refrain from hugs, handshakes and keep ourselves six feet apart from others if possible.
- If you are symptomatic, have a fever, or have been in close contact with someone who has tested positive, please refrain from attending in-person worship. Services are live-streamed through the Facebook page at: <https://www.facebook.com/nashvilleroadchurchofchrist>
- In order to accomplish social distancing, we will need to make some temporary changes in how we enter, occupy and exit the building when we meet for worship. We ask that everyone enter and exit the building by using only the two doors that bring you into the lobby. Please do not use any other doors.
- Every family member entering the lobby should wear a mask and go directly to a pew and be seated. Since the available pews are about six feet apart you have the option to remove your mask while seated, but it must be worn any time you are out of your seat.
- The lobby will not be available for gathering or fellowship. This activity is much safer outside the building.
- If more than one small family sits on the same pew, please make sure to keep six feet open space between your families.

- Every other pew will be taped off so that our auditorium will be at half capacity. For this reason, we will conduct two Sunday morning services, one at 9:00 a.m. and the other at 11:00 a.m. The time between services will be used to sanitize the auditorium. For now, these two services will be the only scheduled meetings in our building. There will be no Sunday school classes, Sunday evening worship or Wednesday evening classes. These meetings will resume as soon as conditions allow.
- Individual, pre-packaged communion will be provided as you enter the building. It will be placed in plastic bags which are to be used to dispose of the used packaging. A container will be available at the back of the auditorium to dispose of the plastic bag as you exit the building. Of course you may wish to bring your own communion supplies if you prefer.
- A basket will be placed in the foyer for your weekly contribution. You may leave your offering as you exit the building.
- After services, please remain seated until the ushers direct you to exit. The pews starting in the back will exit first. This is done to insure a smooth flow of people in the aisles and at the door.

We are hopeful with the mass vaccinations expected in the near future that we will soon be able to worship just as we did before the pandemic. We pray that God will deliver us from this current distress and allow us to once again fully enjoy the fellowship of every member of our family at Nashville Road while we worship Him in spirit and in truth. Thank you for your devotion to God, your understanding, and your cooperation. The Elders

But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble. Matthew 6:33 & 34 (ESV)

SYMPATHY

Our Love and Sympathy to the family of Clay Young, friend of Tim Strickland, who passed on Saturday, January 16th. Funeral services were held Tuesday, January 19th in Dickson, TN

SINGULAR OR PLURAL?

We often sing about "the golden streets" in heaven, but the Bible only mentions one street, "The street of the city was pure gold, transparent as glass" (Rev. 21:21).

The last book of the Bible is not "Revelations." There is one "Revelation," "the Revelation of Jesus Christ" (Rev. 1:1).

The Bible says, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control" (Gal. 5:22- 23). All nine named character traits together are "the fruit of the Spirit." The Bible does not speak of nine separate fruits.
